The following terms (“Terms”) govern membership of the Earth Law Alliance (ELA). Please read them carefully. By registering with ELA, you acknowledge and agree to these Terms. If you have any questions or queries please contact us via the Contact Us page of the Earth Law Alliance website.

1. Criteria for Membership and Membership Rights and Obligations

- (i) Membership of ELA is open to individuals who are working on a regular and continuing basis on developing, implementing or raising awareness about Earth Law. The majority of Members are qualified lawyers, however this is not a prerequisite for becoming a Member. A “Member” is anyone who has fulfilled the criteria in Clause 2 below.
- (ii) Membership benefits include the right to have a Profile posted on the ELA website, the right to contribute to and receive Emergence, the ELA Newsletter, and the right to join the ELA Members’ Forum.
- (iii) Members are encouraged to mention their membership of ELA on their own websites and social media accounts. In talking about ELA or posting comments about ELA on websites or social media accounts, each Member agrees to represent the nature of ELA in a fair, honest and accurate way and in accordance with Clause 4 (Copyright) and Clause 5 (Trade Marks) below.
- (iv) Each Member agrees to represent her or his qualifications and work in the area of Earth Law in an honest and accurate way.
- (v) The content and accuracy of the Profile shall be the responsibility of the Member concerned and each Member is solely responsible for informing the ELA Executive (each a “Director”) of any amendments required to her or his Profile.
- (vi) Members agree that all decision-making powers relating to the work of ELA shall rest with those who are undertaking the day-to-day running of ELA, i.e. the ELA Executive.

2. Procedure for Becoming a Member and for Inclusion on the Earth Law Alliance website earthlawyers.org (the “Website”)

To qualify for membership, the prospective Member must:-

- (i) apply to become a Member of ELA via the Online Application Form on the Earth Law Alliance website;
 - (ii) agree to abide by these Terms and the Governing Principles of the Earth Law Alliance (see Annex A below for the Governing Principles).
- (ii) be either:

3. Criteria for Approval of Membership

Such evidence may be provided in the form of a website link leading to information about the prospective member’s Earth Law activities. Prospective members who work in an area other than law need to demonstrate that their field of work has the capacity to contribute to the development of Earth Law.
- (ii) Where it is unclear as to a prospective Member’s level of involvement in Earth Law, her or his membership will not be approved for inclusion on the Website. The Directors will ask for further information regarding the prospective member’s involvement in Earth Law. This may mean that the prospective member has to create a web presence or update their existing website to include information about their work on Earth Law. In the meantime, prospective Members are encouraged to sign up for Emergence,

EARTH LAW ALLIANCE

APPENDIX A

EARTH LAW ALLIANCE GOVERNING PRINCIPLES

We believe that the development of Earth Law at the international, national and local level, in and by all countries, is a vital step in the co-creation of mutually beneficial, life-sustaining communities of all beings and all natural systems.

We define Earth Law as a body of law, which, in recognising the intrinsic value of nature and the interconnectedness of all life on Earth, puts the well-being of the planet as a whole ahead of human self-interest alone. It ascribes inalienable rights to nature from the perspective that the well-being of each member of the Earth community is dependent on the well-being of Earth as a whole.

As a group of peers with various interests in the field of Earth Law, we agree to listen with respect to each other's wisdom and opinions. When we disagree we agree to be open and courteous with each other and to put forward our alternative viewpoints with good grace and good humour.

Given our interest in the wide adoption of whole systems forms of governance, we agree to the use of Dynamic Governance for decision-making within the organization.

(See <http://www.governancealive.com> for details of the philosophy and principles that underpin Dynamic Governance).
